

Service Animals Welcome

A service animal is any dog that is individually trained or undergoing training to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability.

Service animals are allowed to accompany a person with a disability in all areas of this business where members of the public, program participants, customers, or clients are allowed.

Misrepresenting a pet or emotional support animal as a service dog is a violation of Missouri law.

The information provided complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Missouri State Law, Chapter 209, Missouri Revised Statutes, for access to places of public accommodation and state or local government facilities.

For more information, go to <https://disability.mo.gov/serviceanimals.htm>

